Growers want at least $2 a barrel measure; nobody was buying at any price, but $1 50 was the outside figure named by shippers. There was too little deing to make any change of note in prices.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN HAMP, PHARR, New Iberia (La.) Sugar-Bowl: "It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the death of this most worthy and useful citizen. Captain Pharr had been suffering for more than six months past from the disease that brought his life to a close—dropey of the heart. After the announcement of his severe illness some time since, it had been our pleasure to announce the return of good heart. After the announcement of his severe illness some time since, it had been our pleasure to announce the return of good health and his establishment at Pin Hook, on Bayou Vermillion, where he had been in charge of the warehouse and lumber yard of that place. For a long time he was commander of the steamer Mary Lewis, of the Pharr line. Captain Pharr's career has been one of activity and general usefulness. Of a genial disposition, generous hearted, and endowed with many manly qualities, he was universally popular, and he will be mourned for by all who knew him. Captain Pharr died at Pin Hook, Vermillion parish, last Monday morning, the sixth instant, at the age of forty-six years. Tuesday morning his body was taken to Franklin, and interred in the cemetery of that place. He was a native of North Carolina, and leaves a widow and five daughters. We offer our heartfelt sympathies to the unfortunate family in their sad bereavement."
